

Brand Ambassador

Blind Ambition is seeking an outgoing and enthusiastic Brand Ambassador to be the face of our company at networking events, chamber meetings, and community functions. This role is all about sharing our story, building relationships, and representing our brand with energy and professionalism.

Key Responsibilities:

- Attend local networking events, chamber meetings, trade shows, and community functions
- Set up and manage booths at events, ensuring a polished and inviting presentation
- Actively engage with attendees, share our services, and promote brand awareness
- Build meaningful relationships that generate leads and strengthen Blind Ambition's community presence
- Collaborate with our internal team to provide feedback and ideas for marketing strategies

What We're Looking For:

- Outgoing personality with excellent communication skills
- Passion for networking, relationship-building, and representing a brand
- Professional, polished appearance and demeanor
- Self-starter with a positive mindset and team-player attitude
- Experience in sales, marketing, or community outreach a plus

Compensation:

- Competitive hourly/salary structure
- Bonus opportunities for generating qualified leads and driving business growth
- Be part of a fun, energetic, and growing team culture!
